

Sale Festival 2014 Photographic Competition

As part of its celebrations for Festival Week, Sale Festival 2014 is running a Photographic Competition for keen Amateur Photographers on the theme of

“The Old and The New”

We would love you to enter the competition, and with a theme like this, the opportunities are vast.

But "The Old and The New", what does it mean ??

Well basically, it's anything that you perceive of as Old or New, or a combination of the two.

It could be a person, an animal, a new or old building, old or new trains or cars, or anything else you care to think of that depicts the theme in the way you interpret it. The list is endless.

And we're not trying to define where New finishes and Old starts - we'll leave that for you to decide !

You could even mix the two up and go for a juxtaposition of the two !

All around you in everyday life you will see instances of "The Old and The New " and the possibilities are limitless - a bud bursting into life, a portrait of your granddad (!), and many, many more.

Wherever you go, you'll find examples of "The Old and The New" and you won't have to travel far to encounter great shots - and we would love to see them

Amateur Photographers who would like to enter the competition should submit up to 4 prints to Sale Waterside Arts Centre to arrive no later than Tuesday 3rd June.

The top 20 winning prints, together with a selection of the runners up will take pride of place in an Exhibition to be mounted in the Gallery Bar at Sale Waterside for the 4 weeks after the competition judging. So you can judge your own efforts against the other entrants!

The winner of the Senior Competition will receive a fabulous prize of £100, which will be presented to them during Festival Week, with runners up prizes of £50 for 2nd place and £25 for 3rd place.

There is also a Junior Section for Photographers up to 16, with the winner receiving a prize of £50.
