Natural History Photographer

Thursday 6th April 2017 8.00pm

"Unremarkable Scenes"

Venue : St Mary's Church Centre, Moss Lane, Sale Cheshire M33 6GD

Lizzie Shepherd is a professional Landscape and Natural History photographer based in North Yorkshire, and has gained a reputation for creating images with an almost magical feel. She learned her trade in the days of film, and is now one of the foremost Landscape photographers in the country, her career having blossomed since winning the "Living The View" section in Landscape Photographer of the Year Competition in 2015, and she is now a regular contributor to Outdoor Photography, On Landscape and Landscape Photography Magazines.

In this lecture, Lizzie shows us some of the beauty and intrigue that surrounds us, and which we often take for granted. Her photographs as well as showcasing some of our classic views, reveal a little bit of the less obvious, hidden scenes - things that people might otherwise just walk by.

This is a lecture not to be missed!
